The provisions of this section 6.1 shall not affect the right of both parties to terminate the agreement for good cause.

- › If The User breaches a contractual obligation, in particular an obligation set forth in sections 2 and 4 of these GTC

6.3 In the event of a good cause in accordance with section 6.2 and notwithstanding UIIN's right to terminate the contract in accordance with section 6.2, UIIN is entitled to:

- › Issue a warning, or
- › Block The User's access to the services on the UIIN website.

A cardinal obligation is an obligation The User can expect to be met, and which fulfilment is a prerequisite to the ordinary execution of the contract. In this event, the amount of claims is limited to typical and foreseeable damages.
- 9.2 Limits shall not apply to the extent damages are covered by UIIN's business liability insurance, provided the insurance company has effected payment to UIIN. UIIN undertakes to maintain the insurance coverage existing at the time this agreement is concluded.

The aforementioned obligations shall not apply to the extent The User is not responsible for the infringement.

13 Final Provisions

- 13.1 UIIN reserves the right to amend these GTC at any time, without giving reasons, unless an amendment is unreasonable to The User. UIIN shall give due notice of any amendments of these GTC to The User. If The User does not object to the applicability of the revised GTC within six (6) weeks after receipt of said notice, the amended GTC shall be deemed to be accepted by The User. UIIN shall inform The User about The User's right to object and of the relevance of the objection deadline in said notice.
